DEFEATS FAIR PLAY IN A GREAT RACE, BUT SUSPICION FOLLOWS THE RESULT.

Trance Is Beaten.

New York, October 17.—Master Robert scored a fluke victory over August Belmont's great three-year-old, Fair Play, in the Belmont Park Autumn Weight-for-Age Race at turf headquarters today and a sensational aftermatio of turf scandal may result. That Master Robert, which has been regularly beaten by Fair Play while in receipt of big weight concessions from the latter, should reverse their recent running today at even weights, was thought to be adjust unbelievable and, barring accidents, impossions from the latter, should reverse their recent running today at even weights, was thought to be adjusted in the property of the four starters and the first has been reacidents in mossions of the fact that he did, created the most profound surprise. The adding of Frank Gill was regarded with indifference because of his thoroughly well exposed recent form.

The betting quotation, which reflected public opinion concerning the respective merits of the four starters, saw Fair Play and Master Robert at 1 to 8 on and 8 to 1 against, respectively, with Broiher Jonathan and Frank Gill at 15 to 1 against each. Owing to the prohibitive price about the favorite, speculation was confined almost exclusively to place betting on the other three, and, inexplicable as it may seem, the market on the ultimate whome for second place was of a receding kind. In the chy running Brother Jonathan led Master Robert will be a wide gap, with Fair Play and Frank Gill and trailing, but at such an absurd's big distance behind that backers of the favority of grow uneasy before five farbings of the fifth quarter the quartette concelloser order. Master Robert making play on the inside. All were still running under a pull. Their positions remained unchanged until on the far run, where Fair Play passed Frank Gill and Brother Jonathan into a belated and unray that fateful three furlongs closing drive through the stretch by the giant chestnut was watched with an intensity of interest. At the finish the stillness was so profound that it was remarked upon after

CORRUPT JOCKEYS PUNISHED.

CORRUPT JOCKEYS PUNISHED.

Toronto, Ont., October 17.—Fair weather and clear skies greeted the largest crowd of the present meeting of the York Riding and Driving Club. Eleven books cut in and speculation was very brisk. The card was marred by the withdrawal of many horses, many of the owners refusing to run owing to the recent ruling of the New Canadian Jockey Club.

Jockey Walsh was fined $10 for striking Caltha with his whip in the last race.

Jockey Alex was ruled off vesterday at Dufferin Park for an attempt to bribe Connolly to pull King Thistle in the last race. As a precaution the judges took Connolly down and substituted Goines on the horse. Jockey George Swain was warned off for alleged touting and rowdyism,

WASHINGTON'S MEETING TERMINATED.

Washington, D. C., October 17.—The inaugural meeting of the Washington Horse Show and Racing Association came to a close with the running of today's program. The meeting, while not a success financially, was encouraging enough to the management to warrant the announcement being made that the horse show will be an annual fixture at Benning in the future. Society turned out in force today and the attendance was by far the largest of the week. Speculation was brisk and a lively interest was taken in the running of the different races. The racing was spirited and the finishes close, heads separating the first two in three of the four dashes. William P. Riggs again acted as presiding judge. Young James McLaughlin, who has had more than his share of success at the meeting added another purse to his credit when Great Jubilee captured the opening race. His victory came after a duel with Hanonia, which lasted all through the laste furlongs.

a duel with Hanouia, which lasted all through the last furlongs.

Baby Wille beat Minot out a head in the second race because she was the best ridden of the two. Kraus was of little help to Minot and when it came to a drive was unable to keep his horse straight. Southwest made all the pace in the steeplechase and won off by himself. Laughing Eyes beat Alauda out a head after a long stretch drive in the final race of the day.

J. W. Pangle has arranged to ship his stable to Cuba this winter and will race at both the Havana and Tampa meetings. Gridiron will be among the band. George Newton will also ship to Havana and his string will include several horses owned by R. T. Wilson, Jr. James Johnston is another horseman who will go to Cuba.

It has been officially announced by the Maryland Jockey Club that William P. Riggs will be the presiding judge at Pimlico this fall and that E. C. Smith will be his associate. Frank J. Bryan, who at former meetings acted as presiding judge, will be one of the stewards this fall.

The plan of "registered wagering" devised by amuel F. Heastip, which will be substituted for he old style of bookmaking at the winter meeting t New Orleans, was explained to the members of he Committee of Citizens, who were active in their dvocacy of the Locke bill and they expressed approval of the measure, which was thought to be an flectual check to objectionable betting.

Those who have supported Rhodora for the Cambridgeshire will be glad to learn that the filly is progressing in the most satisfactory manner. Since her victories at the Curragh early in the past month, she has not caused her owner or trainer a moment's concern. Hardly any other competitor will be in finer trim on the day of the contest. For the past few weeks she has been sheeted in her box, never previously having worn clothing, and this plan appears to agree with her admirably. Her coat now wears a beautifully bright appearance, and many would not now recognize her, so greatly has she improved. Rhodora is almost certain to be ridden by S. Donoghue, upon whose services Mr. Croker will have first claim next year.

M. Ruau, the French minister of agriculture, has just been interviewed by a representative of "Le Jockey" respecting the alleged falling off in the receipts at the mutuels and the decisions of the Courts of Appeal which have permitted bets to be made among owners according to the Penal Code, which grants an exception in the case of horse racing. M. Raup has said that the decrease in the receipts, more apparent than real, might correctly be attributed to the very bad weather which prevailed during the early part of the season and proved disastrous to all outdoor sports, and also to the decrease in the number of horses running in cross-country events. He added that although the takings in the government lotteries had decreased some 15,000,000 of francs, compared with the figures of last year, he had every hope that the average of 300,000,000 to 305,000,000 of francs obtained during the past six years would be reached. Referring to the betting going on at different race courses, he said that in deference to the ideas expressed by owners a certain tolerance had been shown, but that it was impossible for him to sanction any step which would be contrary to existing regulations as laid down by law, but that, on the other hand, should it become necessary for him to intervene, he would only do so when properly armed with all due authority.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Sam Heapy, the crack English jockey riding in Belgium, has recovered from the accident he met with some time back and recently rode a winner. The Haggin-bred stallion, Sombrero, a nine-year-old brother to Rubio, the English Grand National winner of this year, was a cheap purchase at $1.400 at the Newmarket, Eng., sales. He goes to the Borough Green Stud as a sire.

At the last meeting of the English Jockey Club

At the last meeting of the English Jockey Club
the Western Australian Turf Club applied to be admitted into the reciprocal agreement which the English Jockey Club had with other foreign turf authorities. The stewards acceded to the request.

Sister Frances, the mare that H. G. Bedwell claimed from W. M. Rogers last winter, will not race this season. A foot that was seriously injured after Bedwell acquired her is still in such condition that training is out of question for the present.

W. Granat, riding B. H. Smith's Oracular in the jumping race at Philadelphia Thursday, fell under his horse and was internally injured, besides breaking his collar bone. O. Heider, the well-known steeplechase jockey, was also injured and sent to the hospital.

Figent, a two-year-old filly by Hastings—Fidena, owned by J. Jones, reeled off three-eighths of a mile in 37 flat the other day at Oakland. Figent is a maiden that has never started, but her work shows her to be a fast filly and she may prove a useful animal for Jones.

animal for Jones.

From all accounts it will not be an easy task for jockey C. Koerner to get down to riding weight. Koerner looks big, has filled out and taken on weight since the Seattle meeting and will certainly have a strenuous time in getting into condition for the opening of the Oakland season.

the opening of the Oakland scason.

J. E. Widener, it is reported, will race abroad next year. Howard Lewis, Mr. Widener's manager, will probably take Coligny and Mark Gumberts over to England, where Coligny may be entered in the Liverpool Grand National. Tim Donohue, one of the best cross-country riders in this country, will go with Lewis to ride for the stable.

STATISTICS OF THE CANADIAN TURF.

Increased Total Over 1907 in Money Given and General Prosperity of All Organizations.

Canadian racing is in a healthy and flourishing condition and grows in importance year by year. To many turfmen of the United States it was a real life saver this year, giving profitable employment to their horses that otherwise would have probably been idle.

Reciprocally the American horses added to the many American bookmakers and visitors increased their revenues greatly. It is quite probable that this was a record year for money making for each

As is usually the case, Mr. J. E. Seagram heads the list of winning owners with a pronounced lead over his closest follower, who, this year, turned out to be the American owner, A. Turney. W. Shields was not far away from Turney in stable earnings, with the Canadian-owned Valley Farm Stable a close fourth. Because of winning the valuable King's Plate at the Toronto spring meeting, Mr. Seagram's three-year-old colt, Seismic, heads the Canadian list of winning horses, another three-year-old, Clell Turney, winning horses, another three-year-old, Cleff Turney, coming next and only $40 behind the leader. Exactly $100 less than Cleff Turney was the older horse, Reidmoore. Simcoe was the leading winner among the two-year-olds and to Please fell the honor of winning the greatest number of races. The winners of $2,000 or more were:

Excellent jockeyship was witnessed by Canadian patrons of racing this year, such star riders as V. Powers, Nicol and C. H. Shilling riding at all meetings, Powers and Shilling achieving a remarkably high percentage of winning mounts. Among the lightweights, Kennedy, J. Bergen and McCahey held out promise of becoming high-class riders of the near out promise of becoming high-class riders of the near future. In all, those who rode three or more win-

With so many good horses in action, track records were bound to be changed and many new marks were substituted for old ones. The horses that made new track records or tied previously existing ones and the date and place of their performances were the following: HAMILTON.

DISQUALIFICATIONS OF THE PRESENT YEAR.

No more disagreeable duty falls to racing judges than the necessity of now and then disqualifying a horse that has finished first. Yet it has to be done, with the certainty that the owner will consider himself to have been unjustly treated, no matter how plain the violation of racing law may have been. So far this year there have been forty-one disqualifications, distributed as follows:

THE WINNERS AT LONG PRICES.

To all followers of racing the hope of some day descrying and backing a "long shot" is an ever present and fascinating expectation. Yet the winners at really great odds come rarely and the opportunity to reap a fortune with a small outlay generally passes by unrecognized until it is too late. Of the winners at great prices this year those paying the highest rate did it in the returns from the mutuels at Louisville and Latonia, the record for the year so far being 139 to 1, by Percy Green, at Louisville, May 13. In bookmaking but two horses have won at 100 to 1, Alleviator and Colonel Jewell, both at Santa Anita Park. The following is the list of horses winning to date at noteworthy odds in the betting:

STABLE EARNINGS OF SAM C. HILDRETH.

It will not be at all surprising if, for the first time, S. C. Hildreth will have stable earnings of over $100,000 when the racing of 1908 comes to a close. Up to the first of October his horses had gathered $83,485 and, in view of the powerful stable he has gathered for campaigning in California, it seems altogether likely that between the racing at Oakland and Santa Anita is should not be hard for him to reach that imposing stable record. From all accounts Uncle is now a sound horse and, along with Restigenche, Paugelion, Joe Madden, Angelus and other recent acquisitions, will tremendously reinforce the band that has gathered the sum already to his credit, which is itself more than was ever before credited to him as a total resulting from a year of racing. Up to October 1 the money earning record of his stable was as follows:

ONE OF ENGLAND'S GREAT RACERS GONE.

Velocity, Twice Winner of the Doncaster Cup, Falls Dead While at Exercise.

Velocity, possibly the best handicap horse of England since Victor Wild, and the hero of two Doncaster Cups, dropped dead whilst at exercise on Saturday, October 3, at the Egerton House Stud, Newmarket, where he was standing for his first senson at the stud. The cause of death was internal hemorrhage.

Epsom success, being backed down to 4 to 1 against the hitherto unbeaten Polar Star, to which Velocity was set to concede twenty-eight pounds. Again he put in a grand performance in finishing fourth with the burden of 138 pounds. His next race was the Grand Prix d'Ostende, run over a mile and three furlongs, wherein he beat some of the best Continental horses, and shortly afterwards at Goodwood, won the Chesterield Cup from a good field with 136 mental norses, and shortly afterwards at Goodwood, won the Chesterfield Cup from a good field with 130 pounds in the saddle.

It was at Doneaster last year, however, that he set the seal on his fame as a brilliant thoroughbred, when, for the second year in succession, he won the Doneaster Cup, beating such grand stayers as The White Knight, Bridge of Canny, Radium, Torpoint, and the Chester Cup winner, Querido, thus rivalling the feat of Vedette in 1857 and 1858. Although not a public fancy on this occasion, owing to a doubt about his staying the distance in such company, Mr. Peebles was, nevertheless, very confident, and made no secret of the same with his friends; and the gallant son of Speed—Ballast amply vindicated the opinion of his trainer by a meritorious victory. The Doneaster Cup was his last race, and, subsequently, Mrs. Jackson refused an offer of $75,000 for him from a Belgium breeder.

Saturday. October 3, at the Egerton House Stath, Newmarket, where he was standing for its cause of death was infernal kenorrhage.

LEADING FRENCH STALLION DIES UNTIMELY.

Was Sire of Mr. Vanderbilt's Crack Colt Northeast-Great Revenue from Mutuels in France.

Paris, October 7.—A great loss has fallen on the French turf by the death of the stallion, Perth, which occurred yesterday at the Haras du Nonantle-Pin, and his owner, M. Caillault, will also be a heavy loser, for the horse was not insured. Early this year M. Caillault refused an offer of $100,000 from the Hungarian government for this stallion, delivery not to be made until be had completed his stud service in 1909, for which year his subscription was full. Perth's fee was $1,000. For the last two years he has headed the winning stallion list, last year being credited with the sum of $118,000 won in stakes by his produce during the season. He was the sire of Magellan, My Pet II., Northeast, Sauge Pourpree, Sourdine and nearly thirty other winners. He was only in his twelfth year, and in the ordinary course had a great stud career before him, for his two-year-olds have proved themselves some of the best of their generation. Perth was a son of War Dance, out of Primrose Danae, a mare bought by M. Ephrussi from the late Sir Blundell Maple's stud. He was born at the Haras du Gazon and sold as a yearling at Deauville for $5,500, M. Caillault being the purchaser. He had a brilliant career on the turf, winning races over all distances, among his victories being the French

$5.500, M. Caillault being the purchaser. He had a brilliant career on the turf, winning races over all distances, among his victories being the French Derby and the Grand Prize of Paris, but he had the misfortune to fall lame when competing for the Ascot Gold Cup of 1900. This was his last race. His winnings on the turf amounted to nearly $160,-000. The cause of death was inflammation of the kidneys. Last week the first symptoms were seen of something being wrong, and veterinary aid was requisitioned in vain. Strange to say, Omnium II. died under precisely the same conditions, all the other organs being perfectly sound.

The reports that the gate money and the takings at the parl-mutuel offices have decreased this year have been greatly exaggerated. On Sunday, on the occasion of the Prix du Conseil Municipal, a sum of over $55,000 was taken at the Longchamps turnstiles, which was a record. The turnover at the mutuels was $567,920, which was $80,000 more than last year. On this subject the minister of agriculture has been interviewed, and he has produced statistics which show that the receipts have risen from $50,000,000 in 1902 to over $60,000,000 in 1907, and the figures this year will be quite as large. The percentage of eight per cent, on those millions is a nice little sum to distribute between breeders and charittes, and the minister of agriculture is more than satisfied with the present condition of the French turf and the national industry of horse breeding.

FEATURES OF COMING HAVANA MEETING.

There will be fifty days of racing at the new track just outside of Havana, Cuba, beginning on December 1, and ending on January 31. There will be six races each day, with purses ranging from $200 to $400. In addition to the regular purses the Carnival Commission of the Havana City Council is expected to appropriate $10,000 to be given to the feature races during the meeting. The track, which was opened for the first time last winter, has been much improved since then and is said to be one of the best equipped race courses in North America. The stewards are Thomas J. L. Brown, Eliseo Arguelles and Arturo Hermandez Mejia. The racing officials are Thomas J. L. Brown, presiding judge: Fred W. Gerhardy, associate judge and secretary; Charles Campau, elerk of the scales; James Milton, starter; Joseph McLennan, entry clerk and paddock judge.

Some idea of the general inducements to owners can be gained from the offerings for the first day, which are the following, with the proviso that the value of the Inaugural Handicap and all other handicaps will be increased from the appropriation of the Carnival Commission of the Havana City Council:

First Race—Purse $250, of which $35 to second and

NEW ARRANGEMENTS!!

We have made entirely new arrangements on our wire service, and hereafter our Daily and Occasional Wires we think will be the best on the market. We will try to keep them all up to the standard of our X Specials, on which we have a record of 3 WINNERS OUT OF PAST 4. GIVE THEM A TRIAL. Watch our ads for further developments.

OCCASIONAL WIRE

goes Wednesday at Latonia. BETTER GET IT. Price $2.00 and guaranteed 1-2 or next one free.

NOTICE!!

Commencing with next issue of the TURF RE-PORTER (No. 203), we will discontinue the RATINGS and will put the Reporter on exactly the same basis that it was before the Ratings were adopted. The uncertainty of winter racing giving us a poor line on which horses will be run and which will go into winter quarters makes this step advisable. Later on we may resume them. Here-after we will give only ONE BET each day under code in this paper, calling it our FORM SPECIAL.

X SPECIAL

goes tomorrow (Monday), guaranteed as per yester-day's ad. All those who were on the last one are entitled to this one free.

MONDAY'S FORM SPECIAL: No. 187 in Book 202.

A WORD TO SKEPTICS.

Some men hesitate about sending for my proven method that positively beats the racing game with small capital. They have been repeatedly stung by the numerous microbe systems paimed off on the public by unscrupulous swindlers. I say to you candidly that my method will prove the exception you are seeking and will enable you to recover the money you have lost. There is a best way of doing everything—I know the best way, and the only way to beat the racing game with small capital. Method sent complete by return mail upon receipt of M. O. $5.00. Address
